COUNSELING CORNER!

As we begin a new semester, it's important to remember that everyone struggles. We struggle academically, professionally and personally. We must rely on our supports and healthy strategies when things get difficult. Your counselors, social workers and psychologists are at the high school to help support anything you might be struggling with. Please never hesitate to reach out for a confidential meeting to work towards any of your goals. Let's all continue striving to be the best Blackhawks we can be.
